July 1 is Canada's birthday

 In the 1600s and 1700s, people from Europe came to explore North America. Some of these people stayed and started colonies.

Canada Day
We celebrate Canada's birthday on July 1. Many cities and towns have parades. Some places have fireworks in the evening.

Four colonies join together
On July 1, 1867, four colonies joined together to form Canada. They were Ontario (Canada West), Quebec (Canada East), Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. These colonies became Canada's first provinces. The other provinces and territories joined Canada later.

This map shows Canada in 1867.
