

A vibrant poster for National Aboriginal Day at Trout Lake. The background is a bright teal color with a subtle pattern of stylized suns and mountains. At the top, the title "NATIONAL ABORIGINAL DAY" is written in large, bold, yellow and white letters. Below it, "AT TROUT LAKE" is in yellow, and the website "bcnationalaboriginalday.com" is in white. The date and time, "SUNDAY JUNE 21, 2015" and "12PM TO 5PM", are prominently displayed in white and yellow. A central text block describes the activities: "Artist demonstrations, vendors, dancing, canoe tours and more activities for the whole family." Below this, the location "THE FUN BEGINS AT THE FRIENDSHIP CENTRE" is noted. A schedule of events follows: "9AM BREAKFAST", "11AM FRIENDSHIP WALK", and "12PM TROUT LAKE CELEBRATIONS". The poster is flanked by two stylized illustrations of Indigenous people in traditional regalia. The bottom of the poster features a row of logos for sponsors and partners, including the Leifur Centre, City of Vancouver, BC Hydro, Canadian Red Cross, David's Tea, VICS, Canadian Heritage, Patrimoine canadien, Safeway, Starbucks, Vancity, ACCESS, Aboriginal Affairs Canada, RBC Royal Bank, Trout Lake Community Centre, The National Health Authority, Forces.ca, Takaya Tours, and Kawa.
