

Language Instruction Support and Training Network

Welcome to #LINCchat!

"What is #LINCchat?" - This is a chat that occurs on Twitter every second Tuesday on topics related to LINC instruction.

"How does it work?" - Anyone with a Twitter account can join in the chat by following the hashtag #LINCchat during the scheduled time. Moderators will lead the discussion by asking a series of questions. Anyone can reply to these questions by simply tweeting their thoughts or answers and using the #LINCchat hashtag in their tweet. You can learn more about Twitter and Twitter chats in this video: An Introduction to Twitter Chats

"What if I don't have a Twitter account?" - You have two choices here. You can either get a free Twitter account, or you can simply read the discussion by following this link: <http://www.tchat.io/rooms/lincchat>

"When is the next chat?" - A schedule for future chats and topics along with summaries of past chats are posted on the Tutela group for #LINCchat

If you have any other questions, please email Nathan Hall at nhall@listn.info, post a message on the Tutela group forum, or send us a tweet at @listncanada

Thank you!
