

HALLOWEEN JEOPARDY

| Halloween Beings | Halloween Symbols | Halloween Random Facts | Halloween History | Halloween Traditions |
|------------------|-------------------|------------------------|-------------------|----------------------|
| $100 | $100 | $100 | $100 | $100 |
| $200 | $200 | $200 | $200 | $200 |
| $300 | $300 | $300 | $300 | $300 |
| $400 | $400 | $400 | $400 | $400 |

$100

This vampire repellent is also a common home
remedy against sickness

$200

This monster was created as a science experiment in Mary Shelley's 1818 novel

$300

A legendary creature that can only be killed with objects made of silver

$400

You wouldn't want to be accused to be one of these in Salem in 1692

$100

A carved pumpkin is called by this name

$200

The two colours most commonly associated with Halloween

$300

It is considered unlucky if this animal were to cross your path

$400

This object, made of straw, is a popular Halloween symbol and represents the holiday's agricultural roots

$100

The most popular type of candy given out to trick-or-treaters

$200

This popular Halloween song from 1962 can be heard at many Halloween events: The _____ Mash

$300

Rather than Halloween, Mexicans celebrate this holiday on November 1st and 2nd

$400

People who have a fear of Halloween are said to have this condition

$100

Halloween is said to have been brought to Canada in the 18th and 19th century by these two cultural groups

$200

The name Halloween is derived from this old Christian holiday

$300

The ancient Celts used this vegetable to carve their jack-o-lanterns

$400

Halloween is most commonly thought to originate from this pagan festival marking the end of the harvest season

$100

What children say when asking for candy on Halloween

$200

In pre-Christian times, people wore these on October 31st to prevent ghosts and spirits from harming them

$300

People bob for these at Halloween parties

$400

On Halloween, friends often get together and watch this type of movie

